

DAYLE BEYER, PMP, PROJECT MANAGER * PROGRAM MANAGER * BUSINESS ANALYST

Ms. Dayle Beyer, ACC, CBAP, PMP, is a Managing Principal and founder of InspirExcellence at www.inspireexcellence.com an Alliance Partner with Encore specializing in organizational leadership and competency-building techniques. She is Senior Business Analyst, Process Modeler, Project manager trainer, and Project Manager who has worked with several senior business stakeholders to capture business requirements. She has experience using a unique and energetic blend of project and program management, business analysis, and risk management tools and techniques.

Ms. Beyer is an experience Change Manager. For over 10 years, she has taught, coached, and consulted people on how to manage projects, execute Change Management options, take sophisticated PMI-certified exams, and deal with business/PM-related obstacles.

Dayle is a frequent speaker at industry events sponsored by PMI and other professional organizations.

Dayle received her MBA from Roosevelt University, and her BA in Psychology from SUNY at Stony Brook. She is a Project Management Professional (PMP), certified from the Project Management Institute; an Associate Certified Coach (ACC) from the International Coach Federation; and a Certified Business Analyst Professional (CBAP) from the International Institute of Business Analysis. Dayle has also served as adjunct faculty at Roosevelt University and Capella University.

Here is a summary of her expertise:

- Delivered Project Management training and consulting services for several companies such as Thomson/NetG, RMC Project Management, Global Knowledge, PM College and Advanced Management Solutions.
- Worked with clients to capture behavior-event-indicators and compose competencies models.
- As senior instructor, delivered a variety of public and on-site Project Management and Business Analysis training classes around the world.
- As product manager, spoke at industry events, developed project management, business analysis and interpersonal skills training for courses utilizing the ADDIE Instructional Systems Development model and conducted international train-the-trainer classes.
- As business analyst, developed new processes and continuous improvement of existing courses and processes.
- Served as adjunct faculty at Roosevelt University's (Chicago, IL) teaching undergraduates in the areas of Managerial Project Management and Behavioral Science and Organization Theory.
- Provides Subject Management Expertise for undergraduate on-line course development and serves as adjunct faculty for Capella University teaching undergraduates in the areas of project risk management and motivating project teams.
- Planned and managed IT application development start-up company relocation activities, LifePage software application v3.0 continuous application improvements, focus group testing and program administration which included updating job descriptions, HR handbook development, facilitating staff meetings and designing assessments in order to improve organizational effectiveness.

EDUCATION

Institute of Professional Speaker Development National Speakers Association
 Certified Business Analysis Professional (CBAP) International Institute of Business Analysis
 Associate Certified Coach (ACC) International Coach Federation
 Project Management Professional (PMP) Project Management Institute
 Master of Business Administration (MBA) Roosevelt University, Schaumburg, IL
 Bachelor of Arts in Psychology (BA) State University of New York, Stony Brook, NY